BEAUTIFUL WEDDING

Popular University Girl Marries Prominent San Francisco Electrician Few Friends Present

The home of Professor and Mrs. J. Fred Smith, on McCoy avenue, was the scene of a very delightful wedding Wednesday evening, when their second daughter, Gertrude Mary, became the wife of Charles Edgar Spaulding. The ceremony was performed at seven o'clock by Rev. George E. Atkinson, pastor of the Congregational church of Campbell, in the presence of only a few intimate friends.

Miss Dorethea Smith acted as bridesmaid, and Professor Harold Smith served a groomsman. A reception was held from 8 to 10 o'clock.

The bride graduated from Stanford University several years ago with very high honors, and is a young woman of unusual intellectual ability. Her admirable Christian character with the peculiar fitness for the work, made her very successful as secretary of the Young Woman Christian Association at Stanford for two years. She later held a similar position for two years at Michigan University, Ann Arbor.

The groom is a young man of sterling character and an expert electrician, having held an important position with the General Electric Company at San Francisco. He has recently been promoted and will have his headquarters at Los Angeles.

Debating League Holds Annual Meeting

The Santa Clara Valley Debating League held its second annual meeting Saturday in the San Jose High School. The officers elected for the ensuing year were: President, Phil Perham, Palo Alto; Vice President, George Beaver, Campbell; Second Vice President, Luella Behrens, Redwood City; Secretary, Edith Hale, San Jose; Treasurer, John Hey, Santa Clara. The following were elected members of the Advisory Board: Miss Knowles, San Jose; Mr. McCrea, Redwood; Mr. Grant, Palo Alto, and Mr. Snow, Campbell.

The league is looking forward enthusiastically to its next year's work. "Suffrage" was chosen for the general topic at the coming debates. Specific questions relating to this subject will be debated during the coming semester. The league was organized last January for the purpose of encouraging debating in the local High Schools. Its first principle is to make debating more general and to give every student in the several schools a chance to debate. This has been accomplished by the introduction of society, class, interclass and interscholastic debates. Contests on the last named class have been held recently in Campbell, Palo Alto, Redwood City and San Jose.—Mercury.

A Good Place to Retire

Secretary Joseph T. Brooks of the Chamber of Commerce, in a recent interview with a Mercury reporter, stated that "there is a growing tendency among professional people to make Santa Clara Valley their permanent home."

Recently "The Mozarts," who are now performing in New York city, purchased five acres in the western foothills between Campbell and Los Gatos, on which they intend to establish their home after retiring from the stage.

"It is but a question of a few years when the entire peninsula will be a mass of homes, and people are learning that Santa Clara Valley is the choicest section of the peninsula, in fact the choicest all year round section of California."

The residents of San Jose and Santa Clara County with but few exceptions, do not fully appreciate the excellent conditions, and the many advantages in which they live, until visiting many other parts of the world, and making comparisons. When one stops to consider the scenery, climate, pure water and its abundance, the invigorating atmosphere, the continual opportunity of working in the open air throughout the year; the superb educational advantages, and many other features, then one begins to realize that this section must become the home section of California, as well as the educational center."

Improvement Club Next Monday Night.

A Woman's Great Idea

They regulate Stomach, Liver and Kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin, lovely complexion, good health. Try them. 50c. at all Druggists.

Lodi.—This city is soon to have another bank, which will commence operations with a paid-up capital of $100,000. It is the intention of those who have in charge the organization of the new institution to erect a building to be occupied by the bank which will cost in the neighborhood of $50,000.

Los Angeles.—"The comet is sure to burn up the earth and I didn't want to die that way." This was the explanation made by Charles Gasburg, who came from Brigham City, Utah, and threw himself in front of a fast passenger train near Covina. He was thrown 50 feet, but will recover.

Alameda.—An instructor in hygiene is to be appointed for the school department by the Board of Education. The instructor will be required to enlighten principals and teachers in the science of preserving health, to make physical examinations of pupils and to superintend the physical culture course in the school department.

San Diego.—Barely an hour after he was brought back from San Francisco and lodged in jail on a charge of wife desertion, Frank Belnap, a former motorman, was forgiven by his bride, who, accompanied by her mother, visited him at the jail, and the formal complaint was dropped. The Belnaps were married a few months ago, the groom disappeared in March.

San Francisco.—The planting of an area which will constitute the largest bean field in the world on land owned by one person or corporation, was completed last week on the San Joaquin ranch, near Santa Ana, Orange county, which is owned by James Irvine of San Francisco. The ranch contains over 100,000 acres, of which 17,000 acres have just been planted to beans.

Sacramento.—J. T. Burke, tax attorney for the Southern Pacific has asked the State Board of Equalization for a readjustmnt of the tax on the Weed spur of the California Northeastern in Siskiyou county, which now stands at $27,000 a mile. The spur line originally was a logging road assessed at $2000 a mile. Later it was taken over by the Southern Pacific and the assessment increased.

Los Angeles.—The sister and two brothers of Thomas F. Croft, pioneer of Pasadena, who died May 5, have filed a contest of his will. The complaint alleges that the wife of Croft exercised undue influence over him, to the exclusion of other heirs. The entire estate, valued at more than $100,000, was left to her. Croft was arrested on an insanity charge several days before his death and passed away in the county hospital.

San Francisco.—Damages in the sum of $1000 were awarded Mrs. Millie Ring, formerly Miss Millie Jensen, by Judge Hunt against Peterson, Nelson & Co., as compensation for injuries sustained through being knocked down by a horse and buggy in Market street. Her right leg was broken and her health permanently impaired by the accident. Judge Hunt decided that the buggy was being driven by the employe of the defendant corporation in a reckless manner.

GLADYS EMERY WEARIES OF ALLIANCE WITH JAPANESE

Union of White Girl and Oriental to End in Reno Divorce Court.

Reno.—Mrs. Gladys Emery Gunjiro Aoki, daughter of Archdeacon John Emery of the Episcopal diocese, whose violently romantic infatuation for the clergyman's Japanese houseboy ended in their marriage last spring, has begun to seek the divorce that was regarded by every one as inevitable..

Accompanied by her dejected father and mother, the young woman has gone to Carson, Nevada, to establish the formal residence that is a necessary preliminary to filing the suit.

No one knows where Aoki is. All the mementoes he has left behind are dismal ones to the Emerys—including the frail, slant-eyed infant that the disillusioned girl carries about in her arms.

Caucasians and Asiatics up and down the Pacific Coast united in protesting against the marriage, but Gladys Emery would have her way. Neither rocks, hooting nor the beating of tin cans by the mob that gathered at the railroad station to see her leave with her stoic-faced mother to join Aoki in Seattle in March, 1909, could dissuade her. Defending her conduct at the time in a written statement that showed that she was an unusually clear thinking and gifted young woman, Gladys Emery began a journey which she now wishes she had never undertaken.

Orville Wright Breaks Record.

Cincinnati, O.—Orville Wright made five aeroplane flights the other day, in one of which his aged father, Bishop Milton Wright, took his second flight from terra firma. One of the flights was a record breaker, the altitude reached being more than 2700 feet, the descent being made safely in 80 seconds, a rate of 20 miles an hour, which sets a new mark. Orville carried his father 300 feet and gave him a six-minute voyage at that height.

Plan Great Poultry Exhibit.

Oakland.—The Alameda County Poultry Association will hold its annual poultry show on the 27th of next November. W. E. Stanfield of Hildsdale, Mich., a noted breeder and judge of fancy fowls, has been selected to judge the exhibits. The association is beginning this early in the year to make preparations for the exhibit, as it purposes to make it the largest of its kind ever held on the Coast.

Heavy Loss by Storm and Flood.

Pottsville, Pa.—The loss here by the recent storm will total close to a quarter of a million dollars. It was the worst storm in the town's history, not equaled even by the flood of 1850, which swept away the big Tumbling Run reservoir and wiped several villages out of existence. Factories are closed, mines are flooded and many stores are closed.

Wooed Ladylove With Pistol.

Alameda. — Popping the question while holding a pistol close to the face of his lady love and compelling her to answer "yes" resulted in the arrest of Hans C. Miller, a deputy poundmaster. The rough and ready wooer pleaded guilty to disturbing the peace and was sentenced to serve 90 days in the county jail.

"Knox, the Peacemaker."

Washington.—Secretary Knox's plan for mediation between Peru and Ecuador, which has been accepted by both countries, is popular in Argentina. One of the most influential journals in Argentina has commended the peace plan and called the Secretary of State "Knox, the peacemaker."

Merchants to Boom Hayward.

Hayward.—Extensive advertising of the town of Hayward, both as a city of fine homes and as an industrial center, is being planned by the Hayward Merchants' Club, an organization recently formed by the business men for mutual advancement.

Cured Rheumatism by Fasting.

San Jose.—After a fast of 12 days, during which he lost 22 pounds, James W. Rea, a politician known all over the State, says he is entirely cured of rheumatism. Rea says he has also lost all desire for tobacco.

Woman Fatally Burned.

Sioux City, Ia.—Mrs. Joseph T. Patton of Onawa, Ia., while washing a rat used in her hair, was fatally burned. The fumes from the gasoline became ignited and an explosion occurred.

Alaska Sending Out Gold.

Seattle.—Alaska's first shipment of the season's clean-up, amounting to $800,000, will reach here between June 10 and 15.

Fish Trust Impaled on Hooks of Cartwright Law

San Francisco.—A joint indictment charging the Western Fish Company, Paladini Fish Company, American Fish and Oyster Company, International Fish Company, California Fish Company, New San Francisco Fish Company, and their officers to the number of twenty, with having formed a trust to control the price of fish and stifle competition was returned by the Grand Jury before Presiding Judge Van Nostrand.

This decisive step toward demolishing the fish trust is the result of an extensive investigation under the direction of District Attorney C. M. Fickert and Foreman I. Goldman. Every officer of the Western Fish Company and those of four smaller concerns, beside the head of the Paladini Company, were named in the true bill as being members of the combination accused of a conspiracy against trade. Bail for the twenty defendants was fixed at $500 each or $1,000 bonds.

The indictments are based on an alleged violation of the Cartwright anti-trust law. As this law makes a separate offense for each day a combination in restraint of trade is in existence and as the alleged conspiracy is said to date from June 1, 1909, the possibilities of the true bill are unlimited.

Violation of the Cartwright law is a misdemeanor punishable by a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $5,000, or imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than one year or both. The law provides too for a quo warranto proceeding to take away the charter of a corporation proved to be the member of an illegal combination.

The true bill says that the defendants by means of the pool limited the production and increased and controlled the price of fish and prevented competition in the purchase and sale of this commodity.

"I will proceed vigorously on this indictment," said District Attorney Fickert. "There is plenty of evidence with which to obtain a conviction. I believe that the demolition of the fish trust will be beneficial, not only as the result of the reduction of the price of this commodity, but will make other staples cheaper.

"The case against the fish trust is clean cut and convincing. The good results from breaking up the trust should reach far and benefit the people of the whole state.

"Not only does the trust control the fish prices of San Francisco, Oakland and bay cities, but even of the interior. But the exemplary benefits should go still further and cause other unlawful combinations controlling foodstuffs to make a general reduction in prices.

"In the trial of the cases I will ask that the extreme penalty of the law be inflicted both as to fine and imprisonment."

Curtis Aeroplane Beats Speed Record For Distance

New York.—Glenn H. Curtiss, the famous aviator, last Sunday flew in an aeroplane from Albany to New York, a distance of 137 miles, in 232 minutes, thereby winning the $10,000 prize offered by the New York World. His average speed for the distance—54.06 miles an hour—surpasses any other record made by aeroplane in long distance flight, and in its entirety, his feat, perhaps, eclipses anything man has attempted in a heavier-than-air machine.

The start was made from Albany at 7:03 o'clock in the morning under weather conditions as nearly perfect as the most fastidouis aviavior could demand. One hour and twenty-three minutes later he had made his stopping place near Poughkeepsie where there was an hour's intermission. Resuming his flight at 9:26 he sped southward and landed within the boundary of Manhattan Island at 10:35.

Only 100 yards north of the point on which his craft settled stretched Spuyten Duyvil Creek, separating Manhattan Island from the mainland. Had he failed to cross this, his flight would have been in vain, but as he swept over it, the prize was his. Thence to Governor's Island, his task was but the concluding lap of a race already won.

Paulhan's flight from London to Manchester—186 miles—exceeded the Curtiss feat in distance, but not in speed and danger. The Frenchman's average was 44.3 miles an hour, and below him lay English meadow-land. Curtiss followed the winding course of the historic Hudson, with jutting headland, wooded slopes and treacherous palisades. He swung high over the great bridge at Poughkeepsie, dipped at times wthin 50 feet of the river's broad surface, and jockeyed like a falcon at the turns.

Only once did his craft show signs of rebellion. This was off Storm King, near West Point, when, at a height of nearly 1000 feet a treacherous gust struck his planes. The machine dropped 40 feet and tilted perilously, but Curtiss kept his head, and by adroit manipulation, restored the equilibrium of the machine.

The following is a comparison of the long-distance flying feats of Louis Paulhan and Glenn H. Curtiss:

By Paulhan: Date of flight, April 27, 1910; course, London to Manchester; distance, 186 miles; total time taken, 730 minutes; stopped for rest, 408 minutes; actual time, 252 minutes; average speed per hour, 44.29 miles.

By Curtiss: Date of flight, May 28, 1910; course, Albany to New York; distance, 137 miles; total time taken, 212 minutes; stopped for rest, 60 minutes; actual time, 152 minutes; average speed per hour, 54.06 miles.

San Francisco Maintains Lead In Race For Exposition

Washington, D. C.—The New Orleans boosters, about 200 in number, arrived in Washington on a special train and, at a session of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs presented their claims for the Panama Exposition. The proximity to the canal and the geographical situation with reference to the centers of population were the principal arguments, and Governor Sanders was the principal speaker. The campaigners succeeded in arousing Congressman Kahn to make a lively speech by way of reply.

"Three great expositions have been held on the Pacific Coast, far from the centers of population, and every one has attratecd a large attendance and has been a complete success as a show and in the financial outcome," he said in answer to the chief argument of Governor Sanders. Kahn said that the "logical" place to hold the exposition was at Panama itself if disputes were to be engaged in with the President, who had applied that adjective to San Francisco. "Following the reasoning of Governor Sanders," Kahn responded, "The Columbia exposition at Chicago ought to have been held on the island of San Salvador."

New Orleans is raising by subscription about $1,250,000 and $4,000,000 by State tax, according to statements made, and Kahn countered this in his speech by announcing that San Francisco would have $11,000,000 or $12,000,000 available. Sanders was hard pressed by several of the members as to whether New Orleans would ask for an appropriation, and he repied:

"Frankly we must expect the National Government to aid us in a great international exposition such as this is to be."

"We are not going to ask Congress for a single dollar," was Kahn's statement for San Francisco, "and if the United States Government is too poor to erect a building and install an exhibit at our exposition, the State of California will do it for the Government."

Representative Bennett of New York asked Governor Sanders about the indebtedness of $1,250,000 New Orleans still owes the Federal treasury in connection with its exposition of 1884. The explanation was that there was no funds left over from the fair, but, argued the Governor, it was a good investment for Uncle Sam because of the good that was done the entire South by the exposition.

Mayor McCarthy also spoke briefly for San Francisco. The California Congressmen are confident of getting favorable action from the House Committee for San Francisco, although the hope of getting the House itself to act is not so brilliant.

CLERGY REBUKED FOR WAR ON JEFFRIES-JOHNSON MATCH

New York.—Bolton Hall, lawyer and author and son of the late Rev. Dr. John Hall, has sent an open letter to the general assembly of the Presbyterian church rebuking that body for its attitude in regard to the Jeffries-Johnson fight. He says, in part: "While in every big city young girls are snatched away to lives of slavery; while all over the land little children are worked to death in our factories; while the monopolies put prices so high as to increase these shrieking evils, is it possible the church can find nothing more serious to attack than a prizefight, already sufficiently well advertised?

"I am the son of a clergyman, myself, a member of the Presbyterian church, and I speak often in the churches, and it makes me sick to see the petty, ineffective, time-serving church organizations. Whenever there is a real fight on against political or social evil, the churches are sure to be found dragging a red herring across the trail with a 'crusade' against some such horror as Sunday saloons or playing craps. Religion only makes itself contemptible by such a bid for support as an anti-prizefight protest."

Indicted for Refusing to Tell Age.

Lincoln, Neb.—Because she refused to give her age to the census taker, Miss Sarah E. Peck, head of the normal department of Union College, has been indicted by the Grand Jury in the United States District Court here. Miss Peck positively refused, the enumrator declares, to tell her age, and when asked if she had been married or divorced, she is alleged to have told him his inquiry was impertinent.

Improved Highway Projected.

Stockton.—The proposition to construct a fine boulevard from Oakland through Alameda, San Joaquin and Sacramento counties to the capital city is meeting with great favor here and it is believed the project will be carried out soon. San Joaquin county will be the first to complete the roadway through any of the counties. A portion of the proposed highway has already been completed.

Suicide of Despondent Tailor.

San Jose.—Before the eyes of a carload of passengers on the First Street Electric line, Gustave Keading, a merchant tailor who has conducted a business here for 30 years, shot himself to death. Keading was standing beside the car tracks, appearing to be ill, and was offered assistance by the conductor. As the conductor boarded his car again, the tailor drew a pistol and shot himself.

Theaters May Draw Color Line.

Chicago.—The question of whether a theater has a right to draw the color line and refuse to sell tickets for lower floor seats to colored persons was presented to a jury in the suit of George A. Wilson, a colored insurance agent, against a downtown theater. The jury found a verdict for the theater.

Death for Desecration of Graves.

New York.—At a meeting of the stockholders of the Pacific Mail Steamship Company William G. Rockefeller was elected director in place of the late E. H. Harriman.

Wilmington, Del.—A tornado struck this city destroying the city electric plant and putting the town in darkness. A number of buildings were badly damaged and several people had narrow escapes.

Battle Creek, Mich.—William E. Parmlee, aged 75, mowed his own burial lot in Oak Hill cemetery the other day. The veteran, a former merchant, was about to rake up the new-mown grass when he fell dead.

Milwaukee.—Dr. Colby W. Rucker of the United States Public Health and Marine Hospital service, and who helped stamp out the plague in San Francisco, has been appointed health commissioner of Milwaukee by Mayor Emil Seidel.

Edinburgh.—Commander Robert E. Peary has received the honorary degree of Doctor of Laws from the University of Edinburgh. The conferment was made by a distinguished company, which gave the American explorer a cordial welcome.

Pekin.—An edict just promulgated establishes a decimal coinage throughout China and orders a cessation of all coinage by provincial mints. The new coins will be as follows: Dollars, 50 cents, 25 cents and 10 cents minted in silver; 5 cents in nickel and copper cents.

Utica, N. Y.—Twenty Utica business men are back in this city after making a world's record for a trolley trip. They traveled 2000 miles by trolley in two weeks, reaching Louisville on the south and Detroit on the north. The object of the trip was to investigate municipal conditions in other States.

New York.—Probably the smallest estate ever administered in New York has finally been settled after litigation covering several weeks, and the Public Administrator has turned over to the care of the City Chamberlain 25 cents to be held subject to the claims of the heirs of William Portland, a negro pugilist.

Cleveland, O.—Fred Kohler, chief of the Cleveland police department since May 1, 1903, and hailed by Theodore Roosevelt as the country's best police chief, has been suspended from duty by Mayor Herman Baehr on charges of habitual drunkenness, gross immorality, incompetency and failure to obey the orders of his superior officers.

Boston.—Mayor John F. Fitzgerald announced that he favors an "open Sunday" for this city as far as harmless sports are concerned and declared that he would submit a bill to the Legislature next year providing for the making of Sunday baseball, tennis, golf and like games legal. He stated that he is also in favor of keeping all of Boston's playgrounds open Sundays.

Macon, Mo.—A curious auction sale took place at Bethel, Shelby county, an old German village northwest of Macon, a few days ago. The Grand Army post, having dwindled down from 100 members to three, sold its property, consisting of muskets, cartridge belts, swords, flags, fifes and drums. The sale of the military accouterments terminated the existence of a body organized 30 years ago, the members of which fought in the Civil war.

Durham, N. C.—After having served in office continuously for 52 years, John Laws of Orange county, at the age of 85, again is in the field as a candidate for re-election for Register of Deeds. He is declared to be the oldest officeholder in point of service in the United States. His matrimonial experience has given him fame as well. At the age of 80 he took to himself a wife barely entered on her teens and only recently became the proud father of the third child by this union.

GOES BEFORE THE KING.

British crowds delight in processions of public shows of any kind. They invest prominent figures in such street ceremonies with a glory all their own. Thus Wright, the lord mayor's fat coachman, and Police Sergeant A 1, who rides immediately before the king's carriage, are among the most popular men in London, an exchange says.

Wright pleases the multitude because he is fat, for the ill-fed millions of London always hail with delight the man of portly frame and rubicund visage. Such a man represents a whole year's array of Mansion house banquets to the onlookers on the sidewalk.

Police Sergeant A 1 is less a laughing matter. His presence inspires awe among a people saturated with class differences and the majesty of an unapproachable court.

To ride, as this police sergeant does, jauntily before the entire royal family, is a unique privilege. The sergeant carries it off lightly, too, and, ever on the watch, he proceeds ahead of his ruler, clearing the path, directing the route to be taken, indicating to the street police weak points in the line of protection, detected by his keen, experienced eye.

He is a first-class officer, as one can judge by his badge of A 1, which by a curious coincidence, represents the divisional police district to which he is attached and the number assigned to him on the roll there.

Nearly all the royalties of Europe have been piloted through the London streets by Police Sergeant A 1, and in no city of Europe has there been such complete immunity from attacks by anarchists or other foes of crowned heads.

It is not a wise thing for anybody to attempt to cross the path of Police Sergeant A 1 and try to reach the king's carriage. With a bound the well-trained mount of the soldier-policeman is alongside the venturesome pedestrian and the rider has him in a grasp of iron. In a trice the unwary one is handcuffed and forced into a trot. He becomes what is known as a stirrup-prisoner, an undignified figure for holiday crowds to laugh at. The experience of such a luckless person is a sorry one.

Within call of Police Sergeant A 1 are hidden groups of police, mounted and on foot, on all public occasions. England, by reason of the freedom of opinion enjoyed within its borders, is free from street scuffles on the occasion of royal processions, but precautionary measures are always taken. From his lofty seat the stalwart officer scans the crowd as he moves along. An expert in judging the situation, he knows just where to have the crowd pushed back a bit more and where all is well. Many times King Edward has complimented him on the zealous way he has discharged his responsible duties as "the man who goes before the king."

Well-Conducted Visitors.

George W. Vanderbilt, at a dinner in Asheville, said:

"I am named after George Washington, and as George Washington's birthday approaches, I want to register my faith in the people to whom he gave freedom. These people are worthy of freedom. They don't abuse it. This fact was brought home to me when, on one of the days when Biltmore was open to the public, I strolled unrecognized over the lawn. As I watched the orderly and polite visitors, a shabby young man hissed at me fiercely from a path:

"'Hey, git off that! It ain't allowed.'

"And he pointed to a keep-off-the-grass sign, and kept his stern eye on me till he saw that the order was obeyed."

One Glaring Exception.

"Is there anything the people of this country cannot do," vociferated the orator, "if they unitedly say it shall be done?"

"They can't get the battleship Maine raised."—Chicago Tribune.

PITY FOR MAN AND BEAST.

It will grieve lovers of animals to learn that the death of Col. Swope, the late Kansas City millionaire, defeated a project for a summer home where hard-worked city horses were to be provided rest, recreation and something good to eat.

The other day it was made known that the aged philanthropist had all but completed plans for paradise pastures when death intervened. Failing to make provision in his will the charity must perish, the Lincoln (Neb.) Star says, unless the idea should appeal to other rich men or to the Rockefeller foundation.

Necessary funds were to be provided for sufficient acreage, buildings and supervision. Enough sound horses to make a cavalry brigade were to have been kept in reserve

Every poor person in Kansas City who used a horse in his business was to have been searched out and loaned a fresh one while his own tired animal spent a few weeks in clover. In this way every weary, frazzled beast that plods the hot pavements from dawn to dark would have been afforded a genuine annual vacation.

Members of the Humane societies and those who are not but ought to be will regret that death spoiled the plan. The only comfort is in the knowledge that Swope did not copyright the idea. Any citizen of any town who has money to give away and knows not which direction to turn is at liberty to take the tip.

Next to a provision whereby overworked women and men could get a holiday in the country during the summer would be the contemplated relief for the overworked horse.

Some day the owner of some great fortune like Rockefeller or Carnegie will provide a fund for the relief of the toiling women and girls who never can get away for a day from the daily grind of life. Already provision is made in some cities for an outing for the babies and their mothers. The Daily News of Chicago has for years raised a fund for this purpose and thereby brought rest and health and happiness to thousands.

To relieve the faithful horse or dog from distress is a noble work, but suffering humanity is even more to be regarded by those who have the power to relieve them.

Cook in Comfort

You no longer need wear yourself out with the weakening heat of an intensely hot kitchen. You can cook in comfort.

Here is a stove that gives no outside heat. All its heat is concentrated at the burners. An intense blue flame (hotter than either white or red) is thrown upwards but not around. All the heat is utilized in cooking — none in outside heating.

New Perfection WICK BLUE FLAME Oil Cook-stove

entirely removes the discomfort of cooking. Apply a match and immediately the stove is ready. Instantly an intense heat is projected upwards against the pot, pan, kettle or boiler, and yet there is no surrounding heat—no smell—no smoke.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

Why? Because The New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove is scientifically and practically perfect. You cannot use too much wick—it is automatically controlled. You get the maximum heat—no smoke. The burner is simple. One wipe with a cloth cleans it—consequently there is no smell.

The New Perfection Oil Cook-Stove is wonderful for year-round use, but especially in summer. Its heat operates upward to pan, pot, or kettle, but not beyond or around. It is useless for heating a room.

It has a Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping plates and food hot.

It has long turquoise-blue enamel chimneys. The nickel finish, with the bright blue of the chimneys, makes the stove ornamental and attractive. Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without Cabinet.

RAISING THE LID

At the first meeting of the Board of Trustees of Los Gatos under the new administration an ordinance repealing the former prohibitive one was given first reading. According to the Mercury, "The new ordinance calls for the granting of permission, upon written application, to bona fide hotels, restaurants and wholesalers to sell liquors, permission to be annulled by the Board of Trustees without notice upon failure to comply with the requirements of said ordinance. The provisions of the measure give the right to bona fide hotels and restaurants to serve wines or liquors with meals in amounts not to exceed a quart. Upon application for the permit, a bond of $500 must be furnished. The wholesaler, under the requirements, can sell no less than a pint, this to be in the original package, which is neither to be drunk nor opened on the premises. He shall pay a license of $25 quarterly. The penalty for infraction of the ordinance is $300 and three months' imprisonment. The measure will be in effect on and after June 6, 1910."

We have not seen the ordinance, but from the above report, we judge that Los Gatos will not have a saloon but a "dispensary," that is, a place where anybody can go and get a pint bottle of whiskey and walk out on the sidewalk and drink it. Well Now! How many of the voters at the recent election who supported the liberal candidates really knew that this would be the result? The general public will watch with interest the outcome of this new ordinance.

When such a large number of the citizens of Santa Clara county petitioned the Board of Supervisors for the privilege of voting on the question of county roadhouses, they asked for that which is clearly within their rights as American citizens. A supervisor is not a monarch, he is a "hired man" of the people. When so many citizens—especially the class which represents the home, the church and the school, versus the class which is interested in the liquor business for the money they derive from it—petition that a matter of such importance and about which there is so much doubt as to the number favoring, be submitted to a vote of the people, the Supervisors should of their own volition, whether the petition is representative or not, allow the people to vote on the question. That will settle it, for a time at least. As the matter stands, the majority report which the Supervisors submitted is misleading, but the people who understand the truth of the situation are not satisfied, nor will they be until right rules. Supervisors Henry M. Ayer, A. L. Hubbard and John Roll voted unconditionally against the petition, and those who favored it in a modified form were E. S. Hershman and Frank E. Mitchell. The latter two signed a minority report recommending that an ordinance be prepared eliminating some of the objectionable features of the Clean County proposal, and which will place the granting of licenses of saloons more effectively in the hands of the near residents of the locality concerned.

"The people of California number among themselves many thousands who are not quitters. Recent defeats leave them undismayed. Leaders, among those who put men before money, are preparing for one more effort to take the control of the State Government away from the Southern Pacific Railway and restore it to the people. They have selected Hiram W. Johnson as the independent candidate for Governor. Johnson is not an office-seeker. He is a man who was led by the persistent entreaties of good citizens to give up a large law practise, change all his plans for the future, imperil much that he held most dear in life, and go into a crusade which will mean having turned against him the immensely heavy and powerful artillery of organized wealth. Whether he wins or loses the victory, many sacrifices will inevitably be his. His record is a fine one. He was selected exclusively for his fitness. Strong men do not become discouraged because they do not win all the time. Here's hoping the next election in California may put the man before the dollar, or, more correctly speaking, the hard-earned dollars of the many before the aggressive dollars of the few."

Mr. Doolan, the new member of the Los Gatos Board of Trustees, is turning things upside down in the prosperous little foothill town. It is to be hoped that the "loosening up" policy will not seriously affect the progressive movement that the town has been experiencing.

Supreme Court Decisions Against Liquor Traffic

No Right to Sell Liquor

"There is no inherent right in a citizen to sell intoxicating liquors at retail; it is not a privilege of a citizen of the State or of the United States."—Crowley vs. Christensen 137 U. S. Reports, page 86.

Liquor Traffic Not a Business

"The law places bar-rooms and tippling-houses on a footing of tolerance only, and an applicant for a license is not to be regarded as a business man proposing to engage in any lawful business."—U. S. Court of the District of Columbia.

Liquor Traffic a Social Curse

"The use of intoxicating liquors as a drink is the cause of more want, pauperism, suffering, crime and public expense than any other cause, or than all other causes combined."—Lantes vs State 2 Iowa Supreme Court Reports page 164.

Liquor Traffic Revenue a Loss

"If a loss of revenue should accrue to the United States, from a diminished consumption of ardent spirits, she will be a gainer, a thousand fold, in the health, wealth and happiness of her people."—License Cases vs. Howard 46 U. S. Supreme Ct. p. 573.

Our Right to Prohibit It

"As a measure of protection, looking to the preservation of the public morals, the State may prohibit the manufacture and sale of intoxicating liquors."—Boston Beer Co. vs. Mass. 97 U. S. Supreme Court page 33.

No Right to License It

"Because the sale of intoxicating liquors at retail is destructive of public morals, public health, and public safety, and is therefore inherently immoral and unlawful, it cannot be licensed under the Constitution of the State of Indiana, or the Constitution of the United States."—Judge Artman in Soltau vs. Young, Circuit Court of Indiana.

Cannery Refuse Made Good Fertilizer

Last fall Mr. L. C. Price permitted a number of wagon loads of slush from the Libby cannery to be scattered over a portion of his land on Maud avenue. The slush consisted mainly of peelings and refuse from tomatoes, and it was unsightly stuff and most objectionable to handle. It was placed upon the land free of charge, as a means of getting rid of it.

During the winter the land thus treated, and also an acre or so that did not receive the refuse, was sown in barley. Now, the barley crop was harvested this week and the result of the tomato slush treatment was very marked. The land upon which it had been dumped produced more than double the amount of hay as the other land, and Mr. Price is so well pleased that he will be glad to accept another installment of the same kind of refuse during the coming tomato canning season.—Sunnyvale Standard.

California Bulletin

Published by the California Development Board May 30, 1910.

Reports received by the California Development Board show great activity in all parts of the State in immigration and colonization. Railroads report greatly increased arrivals of colonists during the past two months. Large tracts of land all through the Sacramento and San Joaquin valleys have been divided into small tracts and offered to colonists at such terms as induce settlement.

Increased activity is noted in manufacturing and industrial development throughout the interior, and electric construction as well as railroad extension is especially noticeable. Building activity is increasing all over the State, indicating rapidly increasing population.

Crop reports do not bear out early promise, especially in the early fruits. A wind storm prevailing throughout the northern part of the State early in the month cut down the cherry and apricot crop. Otherwise there is every indication of good crops. Hay and grain will be below normal, but late fruits, especially Bartlett pears and grapes give excellent promise. First car lot shipments of apricots started to the Eastern market during the month. Berries are reported as being especially heavy and fine.

If you were Buying Eyes?

Would you buy the best or the cheapest?

You should follow the same rule in buying glasses.

The "Ladies' Home Journal" calls cheap glasses, "Ten Cents Worth of Trouble."

A few dollars spent for glasses when they are first needed often prevents results too terrible to even think about.

NOTICE
TAXPAYERS

The law requires each and every person who owns any class of property to annually, during the months of March, April or May, file a statement with the Assessor or his deputy in the county where the property is located. You should give a statement of all property owned by you on the FIRST MONDAY IN MARCH AT 12 O'CLOCK M.

If you hold mortgages or trust deeds against others, send in mortgage statement early in March; so proper deductions can be made showing amount due on each mortgage or trust deed on the first Monday of March at 12 o'clock m.

Remember, if you fail to give in your assessment you fail to comply with the law and may cause yourself, the Assessor and Tax Collector much trouble, and very likely cause yourself expense.

Poll Tax is now due and payable at the Assessor's office or to a deputy. After the FIRST MONDAY IN JULY $1 will be added.

It is much more satisfactory to the Assessor, as well as to yourself, to have your assessment correct when you go to pay your taxes.

L. A. SPITZER, Assessor.
